Dear sir,

Please refer

Please refer to your Diary No. 114920/2024 dt. 14.05.2024. 2nd appeal is resubmitted herewith along with the following documents :-

1) My elder brother Late Sital Chakraborty, Premises No. 8/81-A, Netaji Nagar, P.O. Regent Estate, Kolkata - 700 092, invested i) Rs. 30,000/- (Each 10,000/- dated 10.05.1993 ; ii) Rs. 10,000/- dated 27.05.1993 & iii) Rs. 10,000/- dated 2.9.1993 under KVP Scheme at Lake Market Post Office, Kolkata - 700029. a) KVP Reg. No. 2115 dated 10.05.1993 for Rs. 10,000/- matured on 10.05.1998 b) KVP Reg. No. 2172 dated 27.05.1993 for Rs. 10,000/- matured on 27.05.1998. c) KVP Reg. No. 2387 dated 02.09.1993 for Rs. 10,000/- mature on 02.09.1998.

2). During his life time and further, he reinvested the said KVP on maturity in the same Post Office (Lake Market P.O.) May & September, 1998.

3) My elder brother (Late Sital Chakraborty) expired on 30.08.2000 (the Certificates Holder). I Chandan Chakraborty (brother of Late Sital Chakraborty) has been nominated the said certificates.

4) I have personally contacted repeatedly and have discussed the matter with him. It is pertinent to mention that the Postmaster at Lake Market Post Office has not taken any initiative to locate the KVPs from the old document storage.

Enclosed are photocopies of the initial certificates which were reinvested.

In view of the above, I humbly request you to instruct the Postmaster at Lake Market Post Office to take the initiative to locate the KVPs from the old document storage.

Regards,

Chandan Chakraborty
